NOTICE CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research. If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photograph or reproduction for purpose in excess of “fair use”, that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

It is the user’s responsibility to determine the copyright status or obtain required permissions before publishing or distribution of material from the Research Library Archives. I agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Roswell Historical Society/City of Roswell Research Library and Archives against all claims, demands, costs, and expense incurred by copyright infringement or any other legal or regulatory cause of action arising from the use of materials from the Research Library and Archives.
