Title: Chattahoochee Cotillion Club records
Dates: 1983-2001
Extent: 9 linear ft. (17 boxes)
Identification: 2004-17

Biographical or Historical Note

The Chattahoochee Cotillion Club was founded in 1983. It strove to teach local young women, from the North Fulton County area of Georgia, etiquette to prepare them to be presented to society at an annual Grand Ball. Debutantes also took part in volunteer service. The club dissolved in 2001.

Scope and Content

The collection contains yearbooks for every year from the club's inception in 1983 to 2000 that contain photos, pamphlets, and other club-related ephemera. The Presidents' books contain notes about club expenses and management. The collection also includes a Grand Ball medallion and sashes.

Organization Note

Material is organized chronologically by record type.
