Biographical or Historical Note

The Friends of the Roswell Library was formed in 1984 with the purpose of supporting and supplementing the needs of Roswell's local library. Its first officers included Roswell citizens Nancy Puckett (president), Marion Hicks (vice president), Pat Prutz (secretary), and Lynn Clark (treasurer). The organization was crucial to the construction and subsequent opening of the 20,000-square-foot Roswell Branch Library that opened in 1989 and is currently located on Norcross Street.

The Friends of the Roswell Library continues to support the Roswell library as a learning center for its citizens through activities such as book sales, historic programs, community-wide reading events, and summer reading programs for children.

Scope and Content

This collection holds the president's reports for the Friends of the Roswell Library between the years of 1984 and 1992. These reports include news articles and newsletters, meeting and membership information, correspondence, photographs, and advertisements. This collection also includes a scrapbook, three photo albums, bank statements, and the analyses of various library buildings.

Organization Note
