Biographical or Historical Note

Roswell Bank was incorporated in 1901 to serve the payroll and bookkeeping needs of the Roswell Manufacturing Company. The bank first operated in the Roswell Store (also operated by the Manufacturing Company) on South Atlanta Street opposite the town square. In the 1930s, the bank moved into an adjoining brick annex. It later relocated to Magnolia Street in 1970. The Roswell Bank had seven locations when it was acquired by First Union in 1987.

Scope and Content

The Roswell Bank Records mostly contains volumes of bank records from 1920-1987 as well as company correspondence and promotional materials.

Organization Note

Volumes within the collection are organized by record type, and then by date. The following boxes were added to the collection after it was initially processed, "Correspondence to Bank," "Correspondence from Bank," and "Roswell Bank and Roswell Mill Additional Papers." These are Box 51, Box 52, and Box 54, respectively. The Roswell Bank Records also holds oversize pieces from the Roswell Bank Collection (MS 13) in Box 53.
