Biographical or Historical Note

The Georgia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy (UDC) was founded in 1895. Chapters of the UDC work to commemorate the Confederacy and its veterans by erecting monuments, holding events, and publishing historical accounts. Membership is limited to female descendants of Confederate veterans.

Scope and Content

The scrapbooks contain photographs, newspaper articles, pamphlets, and other ephemera relating to club activities of the Atlanta Chapter of the UDC. A small set of handwritten minutes from UDC meetings is also contained within the collection.

Organization Note

This collection consists of three separate accessions of United Daughters of the Confederacy scrapbooks. Items in the collection are arranged in chronological order.
