Biographical or Historical Note

The Roswell Chamber of Commerce was organized on 24 April 1925. The purpose of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce was to develop the city of Roswell in population, commerce and finance, social projects, and moral integrity. Members of the Chamber of Commerce were required to be active and civically-engaged citizens interested in the improvement of Roswell, GA, and they were also required to pay dues. Leadership in the Chamber of Commerce included a Board of Directors and the mayor of Roswell. The Roswell Chamber of Commerce influenced the history of Roswell in notable ways and helped to facilitate Roswell's merge into Fulton County in 1932. The Roswell Chamber of Commerce is now a part of the Greater North Fulton Chamber of Commerce, which was chartered in 1973.

Scope and Content

This collection contains records of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce between 1925 and 1932. Items in the collection include membership cards, correspondence, meeting minutes, Roswell Mill documents, and a ledger. A notable document in the collection is a letter from H. M. Broadwell (former president of the Roswell Chamber of Commerce) and C. P. Vaughn (former mayor of Roswell) to the citizens of Cobb County affirming Roswell's merge into Fulton County.

Organization Note

Items in this collection are organized by record type. Each record type is organized in chronological order.
