Biographical or Historical Note

The Roswell Business Men's Club was an organization that advanced the City of Roswell socially and economically. Comprised of various Roswell businessmen, the club met on the second Wednesday of each month at the local Health Center to discuss current issues and create plans for improvement. Their work included the creation of signs for highway entrances, cemetery cleanup, and the revision of the town charter. Members of the club included Joe Mansell, Joe Martin, Jasper Dolvin, Granger Hansell, Robert Wright, Walter Adams, Emmett Rushin, and Walter E. Spence, among others. During the years 1948 to 1954, Georgia Power Company sponsored a contest called "Champion Home Town." Roswell submitted their progress report for the contest.

Scope and Content

This collection contains two scrapbooks created by the Roswell Business Men's Club. The books are titled "reports of progress," and they chronicle social, economic, and political progress of the City of Roswell during 1948-1949 and 1954. There is also a Progress Report (no date) that was submitted to the "Champion Home Town" contest by Georgia Power.
