Biographical or Historical Note

The Roswell Bicentennial Committee was formed in 1972 with the purpose of planning celebratory events for the bicentennial anniversary of Roswell's founding. The committee encouraged Roswell citizens to embrace their heritage and become enthusiastic about the future of Roswell. The committee's first chairman was Rosemary Oberheu, who served in this position from 1972 until 1975. Rose Polatty succeeded Oberheu as chairman, serving from 1975 until 1977. The committee's duties and activities ended with the termination of the 1976 year, and the committee officially disbanded in 1977.
