Biographical or Historical Note

In 1988, Roswell citizens approved funding for a centralized government building in the heart of the city. In 1991, this project came to fruition. Through the efforts of former Roswell mayor W.L. "Pug" Mabry, Roswell council members, and many dedicated citizens, the city of Roswell achieved its goal of building the 100,000-square-foot Municipal Complex building to house almost all government operation offices. To celebrate this achievement, the city of Roswell invited over 3,000 dignitaries and all area residents to a dedication ceremony held on 16 March 1991, at the Roswell Municipal Complex building.
